

AUTHENTIC LEADERSHIP CIRCLE

DIALOGUE SERIES

Laura Mack invites you to attend one, two, or all three Authentic Leadership Circle Dialogues that she will facilitate this fall.

Join non-profit leaders, social entrepreneurs and 'conscious capitalists' (corporate leaders wanting to use their position of influence to make a difference) to discuss the following topics:

Tues. September 22nd What is Emotional Intelligence, and how does it support leading from my authentic self?

Tues. October 20th Who do you think you are? How do I manage my own inner critic (negative inner voice), and how is this limiting my leadership?

Tues. November 24th But I don't have the time? How do I balance everything in my life? – leadership, family, aging parents, fun?

Time: 5:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. Netweaving and tapas from 5:30 – 6:00 p.m., Dialogue to begin promptly at 6 p.m.

Venue: Hollyhock Room - The Flack Building
200-163 W. Hastings St. Vancouver, BC V6B 1H5

Registration email: lauramack@telus.net or phone: 604.929.7961
$25.00 registration fee to cover catering.

For this Dialogue Series, I am waiving my usual facilitation fees in lieu of donations to benefit Enterprising Women Making Art. Donations accepted for EWMA. Please go to <http://www.atira.bc.ca/womenmakingart.html>.

Authentic Leadership Circles™ and Authentic Leadership Dinner Series™ are a series of 2-2.5-hr sessions where a small group of leaders come together in dialogues facilitated by an experienced coach or leadership practitioner. In a comfortable environment the participants co-create community, deepening their own understanding of their leadership journey, while sharing that awareness with others.

Authentic Leadership Circles™ are being launched in communities (large and small) across Canada and USA.

Authentic Leadership Circle is sponsored in part by Hollyhock. Catering by Potluck Society <http://www.potluckcatering.com/>
